Objectives of Negmat ElDelta Company ...

Employment agencies aim to connect job seekers with companies in need. These agencies act as a link to provide qualified labor, helping employers increase productivity and helping job seekers find suitable opportunities to improve their income.

The main objectives of employment agencies are as follows:

1. Meeting companies' human resource needs:

Saving time and effort: Quickly attracting and providing qualified candidates, reducing the burden of screening and interviews on human resources departments.

Operational flexibility:

Providing flexible (permanent or temporary) labor to suit different work seasons and projects.

Risk reduction: Ensuring that workers meet legal standards and undergo medical examinations, and avoiding operational and technical errors.

2. Supporting job seekers: Facilitating access to opportunities:

Opening doors for workers to find jobs that match their skills and experience in various sectors. Qualification and training:

Providing guidance programs to enhance employee efficiency and develop their skills to increase their chances of acceptance in the labor market.

3. Supporting the economy and the labor market:

Reducing unemployment:

Effectively contributing to the creation of new job opportunities and combating unemployment. Achieving economic balance:

Linking supply and demand in the labor market by providing skilled and precisely needed labor.

Our Vision:

Meeting the needs of the labor market:
Providing qualified personnel for companies, factories, and institutions.

Professionalism and Reliability:
Completing all procedures with maximum speed and complete security.

Leadership:
To be the ideal and preferred partner for both job seekers and employers.

Our Company's Rights and Obligations :

Complete Transparency:
All contract details, salary, work environment, and travel conditions (if applicable) will be clearly explained.

Contract Legality:
Compliance with labor laws and regulations governing recruitment and overseas employment.
